

This tenth originates from the enthusiasm and the feelings that during the 10th Bienial of La Habana, in an spontaneous way lots of people were looking for me to tell me their feelings. Miriam was one of the people that visited and supported me with the construction process, she gave it to me excited.

To Pedro for his piece:

Trench of Thought

Sweep mirror where it goes the art and stays here on the other side of the wind and melts on the foundations of the creation. The doctrines of this garden without thorns claims the future luck where it measures its hight the many divine pieces.
